Dresden, April 10, N. S.

THE neceſſary Orders have been iſſued by this Court, for a Body of 10,000 Men, appointed to join his Imperial Majeſty's Forces in Hungary, to be ready to march by the 10th of next Month. There are to be two Majors-General, two Lieutenants-General, and a General in Chief; and it is not doubted but the latter will be Count Sulkowski, who on that Occaſion will be made General of Foot. The Dutcheſs of Wirtemberg has notified here the Death of the late Duke, and at the ſame Time that Prince's Will was delivered to his Poliſh Majeſty, who is named one of the Executors thereof. The Vice-Chancellor of Poland, who is lately returned hither from thence, gives a melancholly Account of the great Diſtreſs many of the poor Inhabitants in ſeveral Parts of that Country were in for want of Proviſions to ſubſiſt on. The Emperor has obtained Leave of the King of Poland, for the Paſſage through this Country of two Batallions and a Company of Grenadiers, which the Duke of Wolfenbuttel lends that Prince to ſerve in Hungary.

Hague, April 16, N. S. M. Bray ſet out this Morning for France, in order to take upon him the Charge which he had before the late Rupture, of his Poliſh Majeſty's Affairs at that Court.

Whitehall, March 31, 1737.

Whereas Information has been given on Oath, That on Tueſday the 15*th Day of this Inſtant March, between the Hours of Seven and Eight of the Clock in the Evening, Jonathan Linthwait, of the Borough of Leiceſter, in the County of Leiceſter, Brazier, being on Horſeback in his Way from Melton Mowbray to the ſaid Borough, was aſſaulted in a Place called Thrumaſton Lane, in the Pariſh of Belgrade, in the ſaid County, by three Perſons on Horſeback, one of whom ſeized him, and carrying him out of the Road into a Cloſe adjoining to the ſaid Highway, robbed him of the Sum of Twenty four Shillings, or thereabouts, his Horſe Whip, and one Linnen Handkerchief, and afterwards bound him Hand and Foot; and while the ſaid Jonathan Linthwait lay bound, the ſaid three Highwaymen robbed and bound ſeveral other Perſons near that Place, and took from them in Goods and Money to the Value of Fourteen Pounds: For the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in the ſaid Robberies, his Majeſty is pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them, who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.* HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

Deſcription of the Perſons above-mentioned.

One of them appeared to be about Five Foot Eleven Inches high, a jolly Man, of a ruddy Complexion, wore his own Hair, had on a light Drab Coat, double-breaſted, with white Metal Buttons; another about Five Foot Eight Inches high, pitted with the Small Pox, and wore a brown Wig, and a brown Coat and red Waſtcoat; and the third, a tall Man in a ſhabby Dreſs, with long black Hair and a yellowiſh or ſallow Complexion. The Horſes on which they rode, were a Sorrel, a dark Cheſnut, and a Bay Horſe, with a Star and a Snip on his Noſe, and a ſhort ſwitch Tail, and each of them a black Liſt down their Backs.

Whitehall, April 1, 1737.

Whereas about Six Months ago, a Paper was affixed to the Houſe of Mr. Ridge, Keeper of the Forreſt in the Iſle of Wight, threatning, That if he ſhould take away any Gun, or hurt any Man for killing Deer out of their own Grounds or Corn, his Horſe would be ſhot under him, and his Habitation laid low about his Ears, and to remember the Walton Blacks, for there would riſe Forty Men in Arms againſt him in a little time; And whereas ſeveral Deer have ſince been killed and deſtroyed in the ſaid Forreſt, and on Sunday the 6*th of February laſt, about Twelve o' Clock at Night, a Gun loaded with Sluggs was diſcharged in at one of the Chamber Windows of the Dwelling Houſe of the ſaid Mr. Ridge, in which Chamber he was at that Time a Bed, with an Intent, as there is Reaſon to believe, to kill him, for that the Sluggs went through the Bed Curtains, and lodged in the Chimney-piece of the ſaid Chamber: His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſon or Perſons concerned in ſo heinous a Crime, is pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them, who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. And as a further Encouragement, His Majeſty is alſo pleaſed to promiſe a Reward of Fifty Pounds to any one of them, or to any other Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall make ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid, to be paid upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.* HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

Pay Office, Horſe Guards, April 6, 1737.

The Rt. Hon. the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury having directed Six Months Half Pay to the Reduced Officers of his Majeſty's Land Forces and Marines, to the 24*th of December,* 1736; theſe are to give Notice, That on Tueſday the 12*th Inſtant, Attendance will be given at this Office for Payment of the ſame accordingly.* H. Pelham.
